Carla Grant and Don Kern co-direct Theatre at Coffee Creek, a weekly class for women inmates at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility in Wilsonville, OR. Carla and Don come from a background in theater and performance. Together, they co-founded Scratch PDX, a monthly variety show and performance group located in Portland, OR. Carla has a BFA in Acting from Southwest Texas State University. Don is a carpenter by trade but supports his passion for theater and community through his work at Coffee Creek.

Sherrin Fitzer is administrator of Women & Family Services at Logan Correctional Center, assisting women with issues concerning their children and providing programs to maintain bonds between mothers and their children. Sherrin's personal passion for music, theater, and literature prompted her use of the creative arts in prison as a vehicle for expression, introspection and transformation. She founded the Acting Out Theatre Group located at Logan Correctional Center. Sherrin is a writer and editor at The Tattooed Buddha.
